HISTORY OF JAZZ FUNK

- Jazz funk – is a new generation of street jazz. It represents a mixture of different street and club dance styles that emerged in the early 21st century combined with jazz dance basics. Jazz funk as a dance genre is related to pop music. The first jazz funk choreographers were Kevin Maher, Brian Friedman and Bobby Newberry.
- Jazz funk may include movements typical for jazz such as rotation jumps, splits and half-splits, change of pace and levels, drops and pauses, which are often combined with elements of street and club dance styles such as dancehall, hip-hop, house, salsa, waacking and vogue. Hands and body movements are dominated by 'mannerism' characteristic for vogue and waacking culture.
- As the music used to create jazz funk choreography may represent different genres such as dancehall, electro, house, dub step, Latin etc each choreography might relate to a different street/club style. The most characteristic feature common to all choreographies is the 'mannerisms', although it is often left to the discretion of the choreographer.
- Jazz funk choreographies are linked to the current pop music which often includes a mixture of rhythmic, melodic and vocal solutions of various musical genres. The most popular current artists include: Beyonce, Katy Perry, Rita Ora, Selena Gomez, Ciara, Nicki Minaj, Jessie J, Britney Spears, the Pussycat Dolls, Miley Cyrus, Nicole Scherzinger, Ke $ ha, Christina Aguilera, Lady Gaga, Rihanna, Kelly Rowland, Keri Hilson, Nelly Furtado, Iggy Azalea, Chris Brown, Leona Lewis, Jennifer Lopez, Wanessa, Natalia Kills, Pink, Fergie, Madonna, David Guetta, Gwen Stefani, Shakira, Alicia Keys, Lindsay Lohan, Janet Jackson etc.
- It is expected that dancers' performance is not a sequence of micro-movements with little co-ordination but a smooth sequence of both fluid, fast and co-ordinated steps supported by good technique, expressiveness and an adequate costume.
